Published by the Senior Class

WEST HAZLETON HIGH SCHOOL

West Hazleton, Pennsylvania

Dedication

MISS CAROLYN C. PRICE

The class of 1962 respectfully dedicates this 1962 Arcana to Miss Carolyn Price.

Miss Price has given her students through the years friendly advice, worthwhile instruction, and lasting frienship.

We, the class of 1962 trust that by dedicating our yearbook to Miss Price, we may express our regard for her and wish her continued success in the field of education.

Administration

The class of 1962 is fortunate indeed in having as its administration three dedicated leaders and teachers who did much to promote qualities that will make for our success in life.

Mr. Julius Schneider, as our Supervising Principal, was instrumental in seeing that we, the Class of 1962, received skillful training and thoughtful guidance through the years.

Mr. Francis X. Antonelli, our principal, gave us friendly council and helped us make vital decisions that will help us in later life.

Mr. Leon Dixon, Assistant Principal, kept us under control and showed us the path whereby we may take our place as future citizens.

Our teachers have given us of their best to prepare us as we travel life's pathway.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

We, the members of the class of 1962, are justly proud of our Board of Education.

Members of the West Hazleton Joint School District represent the communities of Conyngham, Sugarloaf Township, West Hazleton and North Union Township, and those on the board represent leading citizens of those communities who give of their time and effort to see that we are provided with the best possible education.

These men have proven to be more than just "school directors." The students in their respective communities have known them personally and have on many occasions called on them for advice and council, which was cheerfully and capably given.

To the Board of Education, we of the Class of 1962, assure you that your leadership, council and outstanding efforts in securing for us a well-rounded education, has been appreciated.

CLASS POEM

When we leave our dear West Hazleton High,
We'll say farewell but not good-by.
For how can we leave our memories dear,
Of things that we cherish from year to year.
Of what we've learned and friends we've met?
They aren't that easy to forget.

We'll use what you've taught to conquer each foe
We'll spread your fame where'er we go.
The privilege to work and the privilege to play,
Are placed in our hands, where we know they will stay.
We'll guard priceless freedoms through day and through night.
No one will surpass us, we'll do our jobs right.

We cannot express the way that we feel,
For words are not made that will truly reveal
The heartfelt sadness, the trembling joy,
That circulates through each girl and boy,
As they pass through these halls for the last time,
No one can explain this feeling sublime.

We'll leave behind the good times we've had,
The frolicking fun, both good and bad.
It's no secret that when we go,
We'll leave behind what we love so.
It'll be so hard to say good-by,
To our greatest friend, West Hazleton High!

Rosemary Fogarty, Class Poet
Class of 1962

Senior Class History

Sophomores 1959-1960

The first big event in our high school days came in September 1959, when the class entered the Senior High School as Sophomores. It was a new and exciting experience which will always remain a part of us. The days passed quickly and soon the spirit of Christmas filled the halls. The mixed chorus presented "Christmas On Wax," a musical with enjoyable Christmas carols. In February of 1960, the entire school presented the operetta, "Sunbonnet Sue," in which many talented members of the Sophomore Class participated. Next came the annual Sophomore Day program; carring the theme of "The Four Seasons." In the evening we danced to music by the Kingsmen,—and so ended our Sophomore Year.

Juniors 1960-1961

But along came September again, and back to the old grind— this time as Juniors. The Wildcats completed a spectacular football season with a victory over Hazleton High School on Thanksgiving Day. We received our class rings and now were considered full-fledged members of the school. Rehearsals were soon begun for the thrilling mystery "Reserve Two For Murder," presented in February to a full house. Once again we found ourselves preparing for a class day and it turned into a most enjoyable day and dance. Even though it rained on Junior Day, West Hazleton High School was filled with Sunshine.

Seniors 1961-1962

Soon our summer vacation ended and we returned to school as Seniors! This was to be our big year, and so determined to start the year in proper style, the class presented its play "Jane Eyre." It was a huge success as was Senior Day on November 17. The class was convinced that it was the best in the history of the school. The days seemed to fly and soon Christmas was in the air. The chorus and band earnestly began rehearsing for their annual concert, and everyone seemed engrossed in Christmas activities.

The class of 1962 is coming closer and closer to graduation. We happily spend our remaining school days here and try not to regret leaving, even though we know that Commencement and the Senior Prom will bring to a close the happiest years of our lives.

Basketball

The Blue-Gold Wildcats enjoyed an outstanding Basketball season in 1962.

The outstanding fete of the team, was the defeat of Hazleton High School on their home court to the tune of 65 to 45. This is the first time that Hazleton High has ever been defeated by West Hazleton in their own gymnasium.

The team then went on to impressive victories in the Anthracite League under Coach William Radzwich and Assistant Coach Ronald Gatski after opening against Hazle Township High School and walloping them to the tune of 68 to 39.

And Finally, Senior Class Prophecy

Saturday, Sept. 30, 1972

I just returned from the planet earth. It was so exciting, I haven't been there for ten years, since I've been a secretary for Brutosky Space Insurance Agency.

First, I purchased my ticket at the Stein-Rent-A-Missle Service where Gloria Voytko sold me a ticket. On the way to the missile launching platform, I hailed a space mobile and to my surprise it was driven by John Somits. As I entered the space terminal I asked the time of departure of my rocket. The receptionist, Barbara Grohol, assisted by Jackie Eisenhart, told me we were just about ready to leave. I was so hungry, that I ran over to the cafeteria and grabbed a super sonic energy sandwich which was served by Richie Tito. While boarding the rocket I was assisted by Carole Green, the stewardess. I also met the pilot and co-pilot, Joe Shimanski and Dave Yeager and the following members of the crew: John Zubick, Larry Novatnack and Gerry Mistal. I was introduced to a few of the passengers who seemed vaguely familiar, Ronnie Gordish, Bob Podlasek, Mary Chucot, Monica Schwick and Mary Breshock. The rocket ride was fabulous. The trip was quite tiring since it took two hours. Leaving the rocket, we were greeted by Carol Kotarra, the ambassador of good will to Mars. I proceeded to a restaurant which was owned by Al and Helen Croman, we noticed the cashier was Barbara Hoats and the chef was Steve Hyduke. We took a super-subway to West Hazleton while swiftly the stores passed into view. All stores were designed by Joseph Grusetskie, noted architect. The first thing we noticed was Lutz Florist Supplies in competition with Schey's Flower Service. Down the street were more buildings, such as Arlene (Houser's) Fashion Shoppe, Kathy (Henry's) Art Shoppe, Grovich Institute of X-Ray Technology, Perry's Banquet Hall, and the Club Paisley. Some other buildings were: Gill's Health Food Restaurant, and Klingman's Rocket Refueling Station. I left the super-subway and since I was exhausted from my trip, I registered at the Ritz Hotel. The manager, Jacy Eidleman showed me to my room. Included in the hotel service was house detective Tom Ogorzalek. A reducing salon operated by Donald Getz and Bob Parry, a beauty room operated by Rosie Carr and a Charm Course featuring Rose Ann Sokoloski and hair stylist and colorist Mickey Sacco. Also a Gift Shoppe was owned by Lorraine Zoscin and Rosie Stashko. I wanted to see what the old school looked like so I returned there and found Ray Schneider as Supervising Principal, Paul Gallagher, Principal and the following members of the faculty, Karen Haury, Gym instructor, Eddie James, Botany, Bob Hinkle as Shop Teacher, and Christine Teter as German Teacher.

I also found that Jerry Lindner was Mayor, with Charles and Paul Vogt as two worthy members of Council.

I was told many of my classmates are in the armed forces: Tom Beckley, Dave Yurista, James Nawracay, George Steiner and William Berger.

I had to get some traveler's checks in Schott's National Bank. Marilyn Ganc helped me find the bank teller, Patsy Voycheck. I noticed in the directory the following officers: Jack Tokash, Hypnotist, Bernard Sarnoski, M.D., Terry McMichael, Chiropractor. I found out later they all had very competent nurses as Therese Kudrick, Marie Haraschak, Jean Schott, Mary Beth Puza and Nancy Bachman.

Leaving the bank, I approached Kakaley's Jewelry Store featuring Jim Carey, the expert diamond setter. Next to Kakaley's Jewelry was the M. G. Grocery Store, owned by Mary Grohol. I also noticed an extremely modern drug store, "Leonard's Drugs" owned by James Leonard and managed by Tom Nemeth. The druggist was John Cerasaro. I looked down the street and saw an ultra Modern Super Automobile driven by Kenny Launikonis and on it was a sign painted in black letters saying, "Smiling John Bogert." It seemed as if it were an ad for toothpaste. I returned to my apartment and got ready to attend a dinner at the Getz Club. This was to be the biggest event of my trip home. Upon arriving at the club I was greeted by receptionist, Marilyn Ganc. My escort, Dr. Tom Mumaw and I were greeted by Pat Salvaterra.

The entertainment was provided by that famous trio Mary Lou Bednar, Bonnie Luchi, and Esther Faust, accompanied by Joe Maschack and his Satellite Seven. The evening proved successful.

Tomorrow my rocket leaves to return to Mars. I've had a wonderful vacation and can hardly await the trip home. And so to bed.
